

Senior Project Worker 3-4 days a week.
One year appointment with opportunity for ongoing work

- ✓ Internationally recognised accreditation body
- ✓ Ideal for good communicator with applied social research skills
- ✓ Be on staff and based at La Trobe University, Bundoora Melbourne
- ✓ National level project
- ✓ Cutting edge work.

We have an exciting position for someone with practical research, negotiation and writing skills to produce interpretation guides for our standards, including in the Aboriginal community controlled health service sector.

You will be ready to start and have proven effectiveness in applied research and writing for publication as well as good interpersonal skills, cultural sensitivity, project management and teamwork capability.

For inquiries and job description please contact Hazel Weir on (03) 9479 3935.

Applications close 5pm Monday 1 December 2008.